Zion Baptist

A large crowd of members and visiting friends attended regular preaching service and baptismal held at the Zion Baptist Church Sunday. At 10:30 baptismal was held for four candidates. At 11:15 regular preaching service began. Rev. Charles Lewis was in charge of the service. The Junior Choir rendered beautiful music under Mrs. Rebecca Fergerson. Rev. Lewis spoke from Chapter 4 of St. John. His subject was Baptismal. All present enjoyed this great message. The offering was very good, after which the Church Covenant was read to the new candidates. Right hand of fellowship was extended to the candidates. At the end of the service the Lord's Supper was served.

A few good reasons why you should think of S&H Green Stamps as your other savings account.

Because saving S&H Green Stamps is almost like saving money (only it's a little easier).

You put away a little at a time, and all of a sudden you've got a pretty sizable nest egg. Which is the whole idea of saving, right?

OK. Now you ask, do Green Stamps ever add up to anything?

The answer is, emphatically: YES. And fast.

Think this over. If your food budget is like the U.S. average, you're spending about $60 a week.

If you spend that money with us, you're getting the extra of S&H Green Stamps...in addition to our high quality food and good service and good prices.

The extra of 600 S&H Green Stamps every week. That's two full books a month. Over 24 books a year.

So, whether you start redeeming your stamps right away, after a couple of weeks, or save them up for something really big, they're worth a lot of beautiful S&H gifts.

That's why it makes sense to keep your own S&H savings account going.

S&H Green Stamps are a lot like money...and they're a lot easier to save.

That's S&H Green Stamps:
The little extra that adds up to a lot.
